Says He Wrote the Famous Bordereau That Convicted Dreyfus.

London, June 3 -The Chronicle says that Major Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy called at its office last evening with a confidential friend and, after declaring that the time had arrived when the whole truth should be told, although hitherto, by reason of constant orders and inducements, he had kept silence on the essential point, made the following statement: "The chiefs of the army have disgracefully abandoned me. My cup is full and I shall speak out. "Yes (raising his voice and glaring around), it was I who wrote the boxdereau. I wrote it upon orders received from Sandherr.'

Esterhazy, the Chronicle says, then proceeded to explain that for months before 1893 moral proofs had been ob-tained of leakages which were only possible through officers belonging to the ministry of war; and it was necessary to catch the guilty party by material evidence. Hence the bordereau. When asked what the chiefs of the French general staff would say to this confession, Esterhazy, shrugging his shoulders, disdainfully replied:

lie, but I have them tight. I have proofs that they knew the whole thing and share the responsibility with me, and I will produce the proofs.' He then denounced the chiefs as a set of scoundrels who have abandoned me basely," adding, "but at one time they used to come to thank Madame Pais for her assistance.

"They will lie as they know how to Esterhazy asserted that quite recently the chiefs sent M. Laguerre, a former deputy, to London with seductive offers to him to keep silence. "Now they are using threats," he shouted; "but I will not be deterred." The Daily Chronicle got Esterhazy to sign the notes of the interview. PARIS, June 3 .- The arrest of Colonel De Paty du Clam, who, in 1894, was commissioned to investigate the first charges made against Dreyfus, was ordered after the minister of war, M. Krantz, had consulted with the premier, M. Dupuy. The prisoner, who is confined in the military prison of Cherche Midi, is charged with forgery and uttering forgery. It is not known whether he will be tried before a court-martial or a disciplinary court.

press Car and Loot the Safe. OMAHA, Neb., June 3.-The Union Pacific west bound train was held up, dynamited and robbed at 1 o'clock yesterday morning near Wilcox, a lonely station on the Wyoming division. The holdup was accomplished by waving a danger signal a short diseast Wilcox bridge. Engineer "Grindstone" Jones resisted, when one of the robbers climbed on his engine and struck him on the head, giving him a severe scalp wound. He was made to cut his engine loose from the train at the point of agun. The robbers drove the express messenger from his car and then exploded a charge of dynamite under it. The car was wrecked and the mail car next to it badly damaged. The robbers then exploded a charge of dynamite under the Wilcox bridge, cutting off communication between the train and engine and tieing up all trains after the bridge was blown up. The holdups disappeared and Engineer Jones ran to Medicine Bow and reported. It is not known at this time the amount secured from the express car safe. The holdup occurred in a district where escape to the mountains is comparatively easy.

Columbus, Ohio, June 3 .- The Republican state convention yesterday nominated George K. Nash, the favor ite of Senator Hanna, for governor, ured now of practically the solid vote and ex-Congressman John A. Caldwell, the favorite of George B. Cox, for lieutenant governor, with the other five nominations distributed among those of less distinct party affiliations.

What was generally called the Hanna-Cox combination controlled a large majority of the S13 delegates, but it did not exercise its power beyond the nominations of Nash and Caldwell. The conference at which Senator Hanna, Mr. Cox and others reached a mutually satisfactory understanding did not conclude until 9 a. m., an hour before the convention assembled. It was all over then with Mr. Daugherty and other candidates, who knew that the convention would conclude its work without any such protracted session as had been anticipated.

Outside of the unusually animated contests for the nominations, the feature of the convention was its universal indorsement of President Me-Kinley. When the plank "commending the President for the judicious modification of the civil service rules, recently promulgated," was read there was a very enthusiastic demonstra-
